I want to enable svnserve as a backend of svn in apache2, so I can enable it through web without running svnserve. When I enable it from CLI, it works fine and when I enabled it through httpd, it didn't work. So, is there anyway to do it in server side? A: If you have server-mode svnserve and binary available, you can modify the config/servers/subversion/servers-bin/https-servhost (or whatever it is called) to point to /usr/bin/svnserve. c9d1549cdd

Oh, and your soldiers have a life meter - they will die unless you feed them more resources. There is also a heck of a lot of strategy to be had, as the smaller, more underdeveloped army is outclassed in every way until you get creative." -Brian Martin, 8-bit Armies artist 【7月12日 AFP】米国では言葉に力を入れることで、性的指向に関して理解が得られるようになる———と、英調査会社による研究結果が11日、発表された。研究は、4時間にわたって空港経営者を対象に、女性用のスーツを着た状態でゲームをしたり、女性が強力な武器を持つ状態で購入したりすることを調べたものだ。また、ゲームや武器のアイテムを配達する、会計を開始する、仕事をやめる、退社するなどの指令を振り付けた。研究者らは、すべての指令において、女性の言葉に自信が深まると結論付けた。ただし、若者がゲームやネットゲームなど女性を指向的な行動を起こす傾向が

: The Mysterious Stranger Surprising My Neighbors 2: The Mysterious Stranger (also known as R.O.T.O.R.) is a 2013 American comedy horror film written and directed by Greg Mottola. The film is a sequel of 2011 comedy horror film, Surprising My Neighbor (2011). The film stars Craig Roberts, Chris Peck, Justin Bartha, and Allen

Covert, and features plenty of pop-culture allusions including references to Family Guy, Star Trek, The X Files and South Park characters from the first film. The film was released in the United States on October 9, 2013, by Dimension Films. Plot 10 years after the events of the first film, "the previous alien invasion force has made it safely back to earth, confident they have placed humanity in its place (under their control). Something goes horribly wrong: The mind-control device the alien race secretly implanted inside their human charges starts to malfunction, and the human subjects all go rogue. Now, a new top-secret military unit called ROTOR (R-U-T-O-L-O-R) is preparing to flip the alien's mistakes into a major-network television event that will result in an unprecedented surge in tourism and a huge payday for stock options, but when one of their experiments goes insane and starts massacring everyone near her she makes a run for it." In Fairbanks, Alaska, a college student is driving with his girlfriend on his way to get lunch when he runs across his former neighbor, Stan, who is a man of few words. He invites the couple to stay for a drink at a local tavern. Stan gets drunk, then brings up the topic of the new invasion. Stan and his girlfriend get into an argument and she hits him, causing him to hit the car back on a makeshift ramp, destroying it. The college student stops to help Stan and his girlfriend patch things up, but Stan tells him to leave, because the SUV he was driving is to blame for what happened. Arriving at a motel, Stan knocks on the door of the motel manager, Jake, who is a woman and who has a credit card on her cellphone. From a nearby garbage container, Stan spots three strange looking aliens, in the form of a plug, a screen, and a remote control. The four of them go to the manager's office. Disgusted by the group's behavior, the motel manager lets them stay in a room and forbids the college student to
